GABELLI “VALUE 25”

THE GABELLI VALUE FUND NAME CHANGE

Rye, New York, December 9, 2013 – Gabelli Funds, LLC announced today that The Gabelli Value Fund Inc. has changed its name to The Gabelli Value 25 Fund Inc. The name change highlights the Fund’s overweighting of its core 25 equity positions and underscores the upcoming 25th anniversary of the Fund’s inception.

The Fund was launched in 1989 to invest in a concentrated portfolio of equity securities believed to have favorable prospects. The Fund’s diversification requirements allow it to make large commitments in industries or companies that we believe offer more dynamic growth opportunities. Using our Firm’s unique approach to undervalued equities – Private Market Value (PMV) with a Catalyst, we apply our bottom-up research process focusing on discovering undervalued equity securities with potential catalysts in place to close the gap between the market price of the business and our estimate of its Private Market Value. Our innovative and research intensive process favors companies that can thrive in various market climates, for example, companies with pricing power, solid balance sheets, and adaptable managements. The Fund is managed by Christopher J. Marangi and Mario J. Gabelli, CFA.

The Fund’s adviser is Gabelli Funds, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of GAMCO Investors, Inc. (NYSE:GBL). GAMCO Investors, Inc., through its subsidiaries, manages private advisory accounts (GAMCO Asset Management Inc.), mutual funds and closed-end funds (Gabelli Funds, LLC), and partnerships and offshore funds (Gabelli Securities, Inc.). As of September 30, 2013, GAMCO had $43.5 billion in assets under management.

Investors should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, sales charges and expenses of the Fund before investing. The prospectus, which contains more complete information about these and other matters, should be read carefully before investing.
