

One Corporate Center
Rye, NY 10580-1422
t 914.921.5000
GABELLI.COM

For Immediate Release

Contact: Regina Pitaro
Managing Director
(914) 921-5025

For further information please visit www.gabelli.com

Theresa Pope Named Vice President, Head of Consultant Relations at Gabelli

Rye, New York, October 30, 2018 – GAMCO Asset Management Inc. (GAMCO Investors, Inc. NYSE:GBL) announced today that Theresa Pope will join GAMCO’s institutional team as Vice President, Head of Consultant Relations. Ms. Pope will launch a dedicated effort to develop the firm’s relationships with the global investment consulting community. The role underscores GAMCO’s commitment to serving this important distribution channel and delivering superior risk adjusted returns and best in class service to our institutional clients.

GAMCO, a leading global active investment manager, which through its subsidiaries manages approximately $40.7 billion in assets under management, has a long history of serving investment consultants, and also maintains over 100 institutional client relationships. This move bolsters its efforts to provide transparency and insights as the firm deepens its portfolio management capabilities.

Commenting on Ms. Pope’s appointment, Regina Pitaro, Managing Director said, “This is an important step for our institutional business. We have worked closely with consultants for more than thirty years and having a dedicated consultant relations professional, especially with Theresa’s depth of experience, will serve our clients well. Coupled with our portfolio management team which has some of the best talent in the industry, her wealth of knowledge of the consulting community will be instrumental in acquainting investors with our people, our process, and performance.”

Ms. Pope has over eighteen years of experience in the investment business, starting in 1991 with LaSalle Partners Investment Management. Most recently, she was Regional Director, Consultant Relations for Russell Investments. Prior to Russell, she served as a consultant relations director at Highland Capital, American Century and AllianceBernstein in New York.

Ms. Pope holds an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business after earning her undergraduate degree from Brown University.

GAMCO Investors, Inc., through its subsidiaries, manages private advisory accounts (GAMCO Asset Management Inc.), mutual funds and closed-end funds (Gabelli Funds, LLC). As of June 30, 2018, GAMCO had $40.7 billion in assets under management.

#